IMPORTANT INFORMATION

FUNDING & REIMBURSEMENT

If you receive funding from FH Dortmund, please make sure that you have submitted all required personal information and bank details via our reimbursement form.

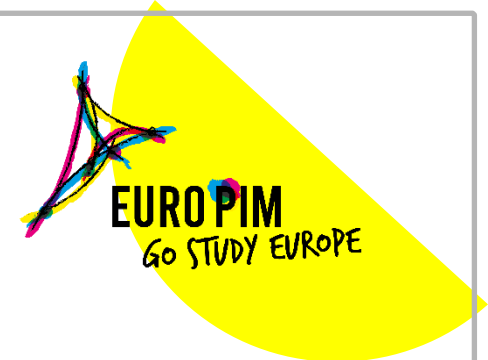

Please note that funding/reimbursement will normally be transferred after the event.

If you are required to submit original tickets, invoices or other supporting documents, please make sure to keep them.

If you have questions regarding your individual funding arrangement, please contact the ISC coordination team.

! Please make sure to sign all required participation lists, including any funding-related attendance lists, during the International Summer Convention (ISC) 2026.

BEFORE YOU TRAVEL

PASSPORT / ID

Bring your valid passport or ID.

HEALTH & TRAVEL INSURANCE

Make sure you have appropriate health/travel insurance coverage for Germany.

MOBILE PHONE / ROAMING

If you are travelling from outside the EU, check your mobile provider's roaming conditions for Germany before travelling.

ELECTRICITY

Germany uses 230 V / 50 Hz and Type F (Schuko) sockets. Guests from some countries will need a travel adapter.

CASH

Card/contactless payment is common, but it is useful to have some cash in euros available.

SUNDAY SHOPPING

IMPORTANT: Most shops and supermarkets in Germany are closed on Sundays and public holidays. Restaurants, some bakeries, petrol stations and some shops at major railway stations may still be open.

HOW TO GET TO DORTMUND

BY TRAIN

If you arrive by train, travel to Dortmund Central Station (Dortmund Hauptbahnhof / Dortmund Hbf).

BY INTERNATIONAL BUS

International long-distance buses arrive at Dortmund Central Bus Station (ZOB), located directly at the north exit of Dortmund Central Station (Dortmund Hauptbahnhof). From there, follow the signs through the station to reach the city centre and local public transport connections.

BY PLANE (FROM DORTMUND AIRPORT)

Option 1 (AirportExpress): Take the AirportExpress directly from Dortmund Airport to Dortmund Central Station (Dortmund Hbf). The journey takes approximately 25 minutes (non-stop) and costs €10.00 one way. Tickets can be purchased from the bus driver (cash only) or from the ticket machine in front of the terminal.

Please note: Due to ongoing construction work on the A40/B1, delays may occur. Please check the current timetable and allow some extra travel time.

Option 2 (Bus 490 + U47): Take bus 490 from Dortmund Airport to Dortmund-Aplerbeck. From there, change to the U47 underground line in the direction of Westerfilde and get off at Kampstraße in Dortmund city centre. Dortmund Central Station (Dortmund Hbf) is only a short walk from there. The total journey usually takes approximately 50–60 minutes. Please check the current connection and ticket price in the DB Navigator or VRR app before travelling.

BY PLANE (FROM DÜSSELDORF AIRPORT)

From the terminal, take the SkyTrain to Düsseldorf Airport railway station ("Düsseldorf Flughafen"). The journey takes approximately 7 minutes. The SkyTrain usually operates every 5–7 minutes between 3:45 a.m. and 0:45 a.m.

From Düsseldorf Flughafen railway station, take a train to Dortmund Central Station (Dortmund Hbf). There are regular direct regional and long-distance connections. Depending on the connection, the train journey takes approximately 45–70 minutes.

Please use DB Navigator or bahn.de to check the current connection, platform and ticket price before travelling. Ticket prices vary depending on the train and booking conditions.

For the SkyTrain, you can use the contactless CALO system by checking in and out with a debit/credit card or smartphone. Various public transport, DB and Rail&Fly tickets are also accepted.

PUBLIC TRANSPORT IN DORTMUND

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

- * Within the city of Dortmund, you can travel by bus, underground/light rail (U-Bahn), S-Bahn and regional trains.
- * !!! When travelling by bus, press the stop button before your stop if you wish to get off. Otherwise, the bus may not stop. Stops are usually announced and displayed inside the vehicle.

TICKETS FOR PUBLIC TRANSPORT

- * For journeys within Dortmund, you usually need a ticket for price level A. Tickets can be purchased via the VRR app, at ticket machines, customer centres and selected sales points, depending on the type of ticket.
- * !!! Paper tickets that require validation must be validated before or at the start of your journey. Please check the ticket itself, as digital tickets purchased via an app are handled differently.

!!! For current connections, ticket recommendations and prices, please use the VRR app / www.vrr.de.

Tip: With eezy.nrw in the VRR app, you can simply check in before your journey and check out afterwards. The fare is calculated automatically.

Dortmunder U

- The Dortmunder U was built in 1926/27 as a cooling, fermentation and storage building for the Dortmunder Union Brewery.
- Its name comes from the brewery's logo: the four-sided, 11-metre-high, gilded and illuminated "U", designed by architect Ernst Neufert. It has become one of Dortmund's most recognisable landmarks.
- The City of Dortmund acquired the site in 2007. In preparation for the European Capital of Culture – RUHR.2010, the building was transformed into a centre for art, culture and creativity. Today, it houses several cultural and educational institutions, including the Museum Ostwall.
- Many areas and exhibitions can be visited free of charge and without registration. Some special exhibitions and events require a ticket.
